May not be a massive amount of pace on here and it may fall to FIRST SELECTION from the 10 box to sit at the head of affairs. With only 13 going to post I don't imagine there will be any significant draw advantage.

Here is the how the past 15 winners of the race have run in the race –

Conclusion/Selection(s)

They could all be chasing place-prize money if AFB is as good as they say/think but I couldn't entertain him at 8/11 and I'm happy to play two against him E/W.

GALILEO GOLD (H Palmer) – Hugo Palmer made giants strides last year and I expect him to continue on his upward curve this term, with this 3yo one of his main players. The Paco Boy colt improved with each run last term and the slight softening of the ground here will only aid his chances. He holds a strong profile for this contest and with the Palmer yard in fine form at present (5 winners from last 15) he should have enough in his locker to at least give the fav a fright.

BURATINO (M Johnston) – The only horse so far to lower the colours of Air Force Blue (with a convincing win in the Coventry Stakes) and also the horse that has gotten the closest to the high-class Shalaa of the John Gosden yard (a staying on 2nd, 1/2 behind, in the Middle Park Stakes). He is yet to race over further than 6f but his last two starts very much suggested a mile could well be within his locker. At the prices is certainly worth finding out if he stays.
